

WORKSHOP

QUALITY SPORT

FOR COMMUNITIES AND CLUBS

This workshop will provide an overview of Quality Sport delivery based on Long-Term Development in Sport and Physical Activity

Thursday, March 5, 2020
5:00 – 9:00PM

Quality Sport for Communities and Clubs
The Northern Sport Centre, 3333 University Way, Prince George BC V2N 4Z9

Community sport is where most sport happens.

Limited capacity can make Quality Sport based on Long-Term Development challenging to implement.

This workshop provides sport leaders a forum to learn about and share their challenges and successes related to quality sport delivery. Participants will be provided with information, resources and the opportunity to share collaborative strategies and planning in the following Action areas:

1. Focus on athlete growth and development
2. Supporting long-term goals
3. Using competition intentionally for development
4. A commitment to sport for all
5. Partnerships that prioritize development needs

Who should attend?

Sport leaders, coaches, municipal recreation leaders, PTSOs, funders and everyone committed to working together to deliver the best possible sport across the community.

This is new workshop developed by Sport for Life is based on the recently published Quality Sport for Communities and Clubs (QSCC) Resource. If you are interested in attending the workshop, register here.

Speakers

Richard Way | Sport For Life

For more information contact Sarah Saunders at sarah@engagesportnorth.com

More information can be found on the Engage Sport North website www.engagesportnorth.com